

I was born between the flames
of hell, that was my cradle.

I was forged by the fury,
by the hate and the revenge.

I have fight so many battles
where I don't needed a sword,
that I've become a leather warrior
to fight against my world.

*Never forget,
never forgive.
I will remember all your crimes.*

I have no mercy on my soul.

I'll take the justice by my hand.

Never forget,
never forgive.
I will remember all your crimes.

I have no mercy on my soul.

I'll take the justice, BY MY HAND.

*Better for you to know:
I'm angry and strong.*

There is a list with their names,
and they'll recive their punishments.

Years of pain and agony
have sharpened my blade.

I have lived into the darkness,
and I know each every road.
Ready for any slaughter,
to quench my thirst for blood

*Better for you to know:
I'm angry and strong.
YEAH!*

*Never forget,
never forgive.
I will remember all your crimes.*

I have no mercy on my soul.

I'll take the justice by my hand.

Never forget,
never forgive.
I will remember all your crimes.

I have no mercy on my soul.

I'll take the justice, BY MY HAND.
